30. Keeping healthy plays an important role in our daily life. Here are some suggestions for us.

First, doing sports is good for our health. We should exercise regularly, such as running, climbing mountains or riding bikes. It helps us keep healthy physically and mentally. Second, we need to develop healthy eating habits. We'd better drink more water and milk, eat more vegetables and fruit, and eat less junk food and fast food. Third, it's important to have a good study plan. We should go to bed early and get up early, and never stay up late. We should also balance study and rest.

In a word, if we follow these tips, we will be healthier and happier.
