11. I want to be a teacher

When I was a little child, I dreamed of being a doctor or a scientist. But as I grow up, I have a clear goal in my heart—I want to be a teacher.

The reason is simple. I still remember my primary school teacher, Ms. Li. She was always patient and kind. Whenever I had problems with my studies, she would explain them to me again and again until I understood. Her encouragement made me believe in myself. I want to be like her, to light up the hearts of my future students.

To achieve my dream, I will study hard now, especially in Chinese and English. I will also read more books to broaden my horizons. I believe that with effort, my dream will come true one day.

As the video "Hou Lang" says, our future is full of possibilities. I am ready to embrace it with fire in my heart and light in my eyes.
